Investing in Tasmania's future

IRRIGATION & AGRICULTURE

LABOR had the vision to invest in irrigation infrastructure across Tasmania, which is now providing reliable water to farmers, growing our state's agricultural production, rebuilding our regional communities and creating a new generation of jobs on the land for our young people.

LOWER POWER PRICES

LABOR committed to reforming our energy sector, lowering power prices 5.22% on January 1, 2014. This compares to Liberal state governments across Australia that are massively increasing household power prices.

PUTTING FAMILIES FIRST

LABOR has built eleven Child and Family Centres across Tasmania that provide critical early years' services for children and their families.

INVESTING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

LABOR extended Launching into Learning to every public primary school across Tasmania to give every young child the chance to participate in early education programs.

LABOR supports the Better Schools reforms (Gonski) which provide more funds and fairer pathways for all children, regardless of their background.

IMPROVING ROADS

LABOR invested more than $100 million on building and improving community roads since 2010.

MARINE INFRASTRUCTURE

LABOR is improving marine infrastructure, including replacement of the wharf at St Helens.

Rebecca's Vision for Lyons

Now more than ever, people throughout the electorate of Lyons need a representative that will stand up for regional Tasmania.

I want parents to raise their children secure in the knowledge there is a strong future for our community.

We must work harder to support our towns' small businesses and our farmers who are the lifeblood of regional Tasmania.

With improvements to water infrastructure, Labor's ongoing investment in irrigation will help make Tasmania Australia's food bowl.

The rollout of the NBN will continue to connect us to the world and provide new ways for communities to engage with Government, private enterprise and with each other.

I believe Tasmania's reputation as a place to work, live and visit will grow and I am committed to ensuring we realise our full potential.

I have the energy and vigour to drive growth for regional Tasmania and to represent you as we take this state forward.
